Sunday Post-Dispatch.

VOL. 39.—NO. 77.

ST. LOUIS, SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 29, 1883.

PRICE, FIVE CENTS
BY MAIL, TWENTY CENTS A WEEK.

Wanamaker's
210 and 212
Broadway.

Throw one over your arm when it's not on duty.
It'll do you credit.

Pull one on.
It'll go to you with the ease of fur—the beauty of a Dress Suit.

LET US give Fall Overcoats a day to themselves. You are ready for them. We are ready with them. And they're in season.

It's the heartiest sort of weather for Fall Overcoat trade. Changeable, but on the down-track for temperature. And, we're always on the lookout for the moments of trade.

Have you seen the Wanamaker & Brown Fall Overcoats? Silk-lined or not?

We are too proud of them to pass them off as custom-trade. That, they're not. We want full credit for the brilliant work we are able to turn out—without either the lofty cost or talk of merchant tailoring.

Yet, in every particular of style, graceful shaping, fit—in whatever there's a peg for the tailor to hang his workmanship on—the uppiest in the country might be glad to call them his.

They're royal garments for looks.

They're inexpensive. There's not a fastidious taste that we have not met in materials and the get-up of them.

Nearly a dozen prices. They'll save you a heap of money; and give you a full swing this Fall in dress and comfort.

Now, with this evening's shiver, and this morning's shiver in your memory fresh, let us see you.

THE BITER BIT.

A BOGUS DETECTIVE VICTIMIZED BY A FELON PRISONER.

J. H. Yorke's Hard Luck in the Holdover—A Collmate Purloins His Money and Leaves Him Penniless—Yorke Vows a Dope—The Money Recovered After Follow-Investigation Failed to Discover It—Yorke, Standing Outside—Jeff Starts to the Front—He Is Anxiously Awaited by the Unfortunate Captive.

J. H. Yorke, the bogus detective agency man who was victimized a few days ago by the police, is in luck now. For a man who is a legal detective is understood to swindle would-be detectives, he has been badly taken in. It will be remembered that he rented a room on Olive street, west of Sixteenth, and advertised in the papers for two men to do detective work in this city for the Oklahoma Secret Service Association of Wichita, Kan., or which he claimed to be Secretary. The corps of young men who desired to be employed by Yorke were as large as ever, and they flocked to the place. A couple of detectives who were sent there to interview the affair came to the conclusion that Yorke was a fraud and arrested him. He is a small, beardless youth and looks like a dud in distress. That is all he appears to have all the duds' desire for dress, but his means probably prevent his gratifying this taste, as his clothes appear to have been considerable service.

TESTING AN EMBROILED DETECTIVE.
Among the callers at the office of Phillip Reisheimer, a simple-minded butcher, who thought he was a honest detective, Yorke must have enjoyed himself with Phillip, for he was the unfortunate young Tecton reading cards to test his eyesight and listening to tricks to try his hearing. Yorke pounced Phillip in the chest to see if his lungs were sound and if he was physically strong. After having some more amusement of this kind with the ambitious young butcher, he consented to let him have the latter a detective badge, which cost probably $10, and was worth nothing, and a copy of a detective paper for $5. Armed with these Phillip imagined himself the hero of a yellow-back novel detective tale. A man named James Wallace had also been engaged to go to work on October 3, when he also was to deposit $5 and receive a badge and paper. Yesterday Yorke was placed in jail on a charge of defrauding Reisheimer out of $5. The previous night, however, he spent in the hospital, and was released.

REASONS FOR THE HOLDOVER.
Besides the corroborates the secret service service, he had to call a culinate one Clark Hadley, alias Harry Kelly, a crook, who only a fortnight ago was released from the penitentiary after serving three years there for a robbery. He had been working at the change racket on street cars. Now there is nothing of the lude about him. He is a straightforward young fellow who would steal anything from a penny to a steamboat, and is willing to turn his hand at any job. He is a good boy, and is ready for a guide, either. In that respect he is like all other crooks of his class. The police make no bones about it, and the public is not the least about him in his cell, or to keep any valuable, as they fear some of the other prisoners will do.

TRYING TO MAKE AN OPPORTUNITY.
Yorke had nearly $100 on him when arrested, and the police kept him in jail until he had given the dollar and extra change. When he retired for the night he rented a blanket and pillow from a hotel, and never bothered his couch. His clothes he placed on a bench on the other side of the cell and laid himself down to dream. When he awoke by cockroaches. When he awoke yesterday morning and he awoke him from his trousers pocket, the smaller change being left undisturbed. He reported the matter to the detective, who was overawed, and said he knew his cell-mate had robbed him. Kelly was searched but nothing was found.

Finally he acknowledged having taken the dollar and pulled it out of his uniform, while he was in need of money, and seeing an opportunity to steal a dollar availed himself of it. Yorke had been a target of Kelly's, and he could never have been robbed, but Kelly sized him up for a "dude crook" and stole from him. This is a pattern of the way these fellows rob one of his own set of crooks, but will steal from any other kind of a crook.

YORKE IS ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT.
Yorke is still on the anxious seat. Yesterday he was visited in the holdover by Jeff D. Storts, a practicing attorney here, who gave the latter an order on the Sheriff for the $5 in money he had there. Jeff got the money out of the safe, and paid Storts the balance. Up to a late hour yesterday Jeff had not returned the balance to Yorke again. He got the same yesterday afternoon in the old St. Louis Stock Exchange, and reads as follows:

Reyerson vs. Yorke, September 28, 1888.

Received of J. H. Yorke for $50 to be retained by me, and expenses returned to him.

JEFF D. STORTS.

When Yorke was seen about the office this morning he said: "I do not know that I have not been victimized by the police, but I learned anything about it. When I was in the holdover he came to see me. I did not employ him, but I did not tell him so, for if I need an attorney I shall engage Mr. Lodge. The man who got out the warrant against me told me he had not been to the police station, and I am not sure that he would prove that my character as Wichita is all right. This order I gave to Storts to do the necessary telegraphing, this would cost him about $5 and offend him, but he did, and he will have about $5 for his trouble."

A Disastrous Explosion.

WHEELING, W. Va., September 29.—At Belaire, O., at an early hour this morning, the Ohio Valley Foundry was totally destroyed by fire and the Bellair window-glass works partially destroyed. The fire was caused by a sudden increase of pressure in one of the gas pipes, breaking pipes in the glass factory, and causing an explosion which took off the roof of the building and caused to foundry adjoining. Loss on foundry, $80,000; insurance, $25,000. Loss on glass factory, $75,000; insurance, $15,000. Both the foundry and glass factory will be able to supply their trade in two weeks.

ABOUT TOWN.

An overcoat and silk hat valued at $5 were stolen from Frank Ferrer of No. 255 Chestnut street.

CHARLES A. FOSS, an 18-month-old child, died at No. 375 Oregon avenue from the effects of burns received from scalding hot water.

JOSEPH E. BAKER'S stable, 2517 Allen street, was entered by a sneak thief Wednesday afternoon. The horses are on their way home, after spending the summer at Waukegan, Ill.

ANNE MURRAY, a negro widow, 62 years of age, was found dead in bed at No. 618 Washington at 4 o'clock this morning. Her body was severely damaged by the extent of the blisters. John Greenleaf, the foreman of the works, found the alarm hot ashes thrown on the platform outside.

OFFICERS Schmidt and Wickerton of the Second and District arrested Jack Sommers, alias John, a negro, on the corner of S. Second and Main streets, and presented a note from A. H. Hoffman to the bank, which he had come to purchase some hay. It was advanced and the managers there discovered that the note was forged. The note for $100 for fraud was issued to Sommers this afternoon.

Women Who Were Divided Patients.
From the Savannah News.

"How many women have actually adopted dress reform clothing?" I asked Annie Janes Miller, the latest of the dress reformers. "All you mean, her patients are to-day the most popular dress reformers. They are to-day the most popular dress reformers. There are several thousand, somebody said recently that only twenty thousand in the United States are registered." The case of Hennessy & Co. vs. Chas. Webster for an infringement of a trademark was settled by agreement this afternoon.

Superb Lunch.
The regular annual muster of the United States troops at Jefferson Barracks will take place tomorrow. The inspection will be made by Maj.-Gen. Perry. A dress parade drill and a mounted drill will be the chief attractions of the day.

Superior Crushed Coke.
Berry & Sprague, 112 Olive.

Carondelet Jettings.
The members of the Carondelet Gun Club will meet at 10 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Armory.

Wm. Watterson and his wife, Jessie, were before Justice Meagan this morning on a charge of assault and battery. The two each fined $10 and costs. Justice Edward was fined $25 and costs for defacing private property.

Maria Jackson, the woman who was bitten by a mad dog last Thursday evening, is recovering by her attending physician to be rapidly. She is much more active than was heretofore. Mrs. Leon Garlett, who was also attacked by the dog, are improving and are considered out of danger.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Republican clubs of St. Louis County met at Harrison and Moreh street. The evening will be a grand social affair.

Wm. Watterson and his wife, Jessie, were before Justice Meagan this morning on a charge of assault and battery. The two each fined $10 and costs. Justice Edward was fined $25 and costs for defacing private property.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

ENTERTAINMENT—Open afternoon and evening.
KENNINGTON—"Last Days of Pompeii."
GRAND—"Latin On."
OLYMPIC—"Pearl of Pekin."
PROKOFIEV—"Maid of Orleans."
POPE'S—"Old Crook."
STANBARD—"Hilarity."
MATINNEES—TOMORROW.

The indications for twenty-four hours commencing at 3 p.m. to-day for Missouri are: Fair weather; stationary temperature, except in extreme southwest and northeast portions; a slight rise in temperature; easterly winds.

POLITICS IN ST. LOUIS IS IN A BAD WAY WHEN IT HAS TO BEAR THE BURDEN OF ILLEGAL VOTERS AND DISREPUTABLE DIVE-KEEPERS.

THERE IS NO DOUBT THAT GEN. HARRISON AROUSES AN IMMENSE AMOUNT OF ENTHUSIASM, BUT IT IS ENTHUSIASM FOR THE MAN WHO IS RUNNING AGAINST HIM.

READ THE FULL AND INTERESTING DESCRIPTION, WITH TWENTY-TWO ILLUSTRATIONS, OF THE MAGNIFICENT VEILED PROPHETS' PAGEANT IN THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH OF TOMORROW.

IT IS HARDLY NECESSARY TO SAY THAT THE SILENCE OF CONGRESSMAN CLARDY IS MORE CONVINCING ON THE SUBJECT OF TARIFF REFORM THAN HIS ORATORY, AND IT IS DOUBTFUL IF MORE COMFORTABLE TO MR. CLARDY.

THE FIGHT OVER THE SOUTH NOW IS BETWEEN THE TWO JACKS—YELLOW JACK AND JACK FROST. Fortunately the outlook is in favor of an early season of cold weather, and with the advent of frost the death scourge must take its flight. The hopes of the whole country are with the stricken sections, where improvement is already noted.

RECORDED WILLIAMS CAN DO NO MORE THAN DO ALL IN HIS POWER TO PREVENT ILLEGAL REGISTRATION AND ASSIST IN THE PROSECUTION OF PERSONS ATTEMPTING IT. THE COURTS MUST PUNISH THE CRIMINALS AND IT IS TO BE HOPEFUL THAT THERE WILL BE NO MISCARRIAGE OF JUSTICE IN SUCH CASES. SEVERAL RIGOROUS APPLICATIONS OF THE LAW WOULD HAVE A SALUTARY EFFECT AT THIS TIME.

WHILE THE REPUBLICAN NEWSPAPERS ARE REFERRING RATHER EXULTINGLY TO THE LOSS OF DEMOCRATIC VOTES IN THE SOUTH THROUGH THE YELLOW FEVER PANIC, THEY SHOULD BEAR IN MIND THAT IF THE DEMOCRATS FOLLOW THE REPUBLICAN EXAMPLE IN THE USE OF NEGRO VOTES HERE IN ST. LOUIS THERE MAY BE A LARGE DEMOCRATIC GAIN IN THE NORTH. OF COURSE THE REPUBLICANS WOULD NOT OBJECT TO A LITTLE GAME OF HIT-AND-MISS IN THE PLACING OF THE RAMBLING VOTERS.

TO-MORROW'S SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH WILL CONTAIN A FULL REVELATION OF THE BEAUTIFUL PAGEANT WITH WHICH THE VEILED PROPHETS WILL DELIGHT ST. LOUISANS AND THOUSANDS OF STRANGERS NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT. PICTURES OF THE PROPHET'S TWENTY-TWO TABLEAU CARS AND A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THE PAGEANT WILL BE PRINTED. IF YOU WANT TO KNOW WHAT THE GORGEOUS-CAVALEO WILL LOOK LIKE AS YOUR NEWSPAPER TOMORROW FOR THE SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL ARTICLES IN THE CONSTITUTION OF THE WHEEL DENOUNCES MONOPOLIES AS DANGEROUS TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE COUNTRY AND TENDING TO ENSLAVE A FREE PEOPLE. IT WOULD TAKE SOME REMARKABLE LOGIC TO RECONCILE THIS UTTERANCE WITH ANY SUPPORT OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, THE PLATFORM OF WHICH DECLARES IN FAVOR OF THE HIGHEST PROTECTION, WHICH ALONE MAKES MONOPOLIES AND TRUSTS POSSIBLE IN THIS COUNTRY. THE CHANCES ARE THAT THE INTELLIGENT FARMERS WHO COMPOSE THE WHEEL AND ALL SIMILAR ORGANIZATIONS WILL VOTE IN ACCORDANCE WITH THEIR CONVICTIONS.

THE MORE THOROUGHLY THE MONTAGUE CASE IS SETTLED THE MORE OUTRAGEOUS DOES THE DISREGARD OF THE LAW AND THE RIGHTS OF THE COMMUNITY APPEAR IN THE GRANTING OF A LICENSE TO HIM TO SELL LIQUOR. THE RECORD OF THIS MAN WHO IS NOW UNDER ARREST FOR MURDER, AS REVEALED BY THE POST-DISPATCH, SHOWS PERSISTENT AND BOLD DEFENSE OF THE LAW AND THE AUTHORITIES IN THE CONDUCT OF HIS SAUCONS. AND YET WITH SUCH A RECORD HE WAS ABLE TO KEEP HIS SALOON OPEN FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE MOST DISREPUTABLE PERSONS AND TO DISPLAY HIS LICENSE FOR SO DOING. THERE WAS A PLAIN VIOLATION OF THE LAW IN HIS CASE WHICH IS INEXCUSABLE. IT IS TO BE HOPEFUL THAT THE LESSON OF HIS CAREER WILL BE HEeded BY THE PROPER OFFICIALS.

THE REMARKS APPLY TO THE COMBINED EFFORTS OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD CROWD AND THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE TO PROLONG THE MISERABLE AND DEGRADED EXISTENCE OF THE NEW YORK STAR AS A DEMOCRATIC ORGAN, SO CALLED, UNDERSHIRT OF THE "COMBINE" OF MONOPOLY INFLUENCES. MR. HUNTINGTON, LELAND STANFORD'S PARTNER IN REPUBLICAN POLITICS, IN LAND-GRABBING AND IN PACIFIC RAILROAD OPERATIONS, IS NOW SHARING THE EXPERIENCE OF JAY GOULD AND TOM SCOTT AS A PAYMASTER FOR PARTY ORGANS. HE AND STANFORD VINDICATED THEIR LOYALTY TO THE REPUBLICAN PARTY BY TURNING THEIR SAN FRANCISCO REPUBLICAN ORGAN INTO A DEMOCRATIC ORGAN WHEN THEY FOUND THAT THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF CALIFORNIA COULD NO LONGER SURVIVE ITS IDENTIFICATION WITH THAT SIDE OF POLITICS. THEN ITS ATTEMPT AS A DEMOCRATIC ORGAN TO FOIL JUDGE FIELD ON THE DEMOCRATS MET WITH SUCH A SIGNAL DEFEAT THAT HUNTINGTON AND STANFORD WERE AT LAST FORCED TO PUT IT IN FRIENDLY DEMOCRATIC HANDS AND TO APPROPRIATE IT TO THEIR OWN CONTROL. The Artistic Display of Agricultural, Horticultural, Mineral and Timber Products Among the Chief Attractions of the Exposition—A Scene That Attracts Every Visitor and Holds Him Around It—“Food and Missouri” Shines Like a Star in This Grand Collection.

There is one display in the Exposition that should make the heart of every Missourian and every lover of Missouri swell with pride. For years other States have been taking advantage of our splendid Exposition to display their products and attractions, while Missouri, the star of the city, with resources vastly superior to any in the State or Territories, has been disgraced by friends, slandered and traduced by enemies and misunderstood by the world at large. Her salubrious climate has been spurned for the blizzard-swept regions of the inhospitable Northwest. Her well-watered and grateful lands, never refusing a generous return to the efforts of the husbandman, have been ignored for the sun-baked and heat-prone deserts towards the setting sun. With these facts in mind it is a pleasure to witness the well-directed efforts of a set of earnest, capable and determined men who have undertaken the task of rescuing the who slanders that for years have heaped odium upon the State and presenting her to the world for what she is—one of the most desirable places on the globe for a residence; a place where law and order prevail; where honest life abounds, and where the rights of property are respected; a place where the elements of material wealth and prosperity are aggregated than in any other equal territory on earth. Their display at the Exposition covers a wide range of products and industries. The organization was not in shape to undertake the exhibit till ten days before the Exposition opened, but the time was not too late for a careful selection, but they had to “scramble” to catch ‘ould’ for the materials of which they had to do.

Notwithstanding these unfavorable circumstances their display is a surprising aggregation of wealth and value, and the most complete and artistic display of the entire Southwest Missouri, but upon the entire State. Within and occupying the entire building, the display is as follows:

Mr. F. B. Thurber Explains the Position of the Wholesale Grocers in the Post-Dispatch.

New York, September 25.—Mr. F. B. Thurber's attention was called yesterday afternoon to a newspaper article which purported to give reasons for the attempt of the Sugar Trust and the wholesale grocers' combination to come together at this time.

“In the first place,” said Mr. Thurber, after reading the article, “the grocers have simply tried to force the members of the Sugar Trust to do what they wanted them to do. They have not any intention of forming a combination, because it costs us that amount to do the business. The article largely misrepresents the facts.”

Glass-Works Boys Cause a Big Shut-Down

BALTIMORE, Md., September 29.—Two hundred and fifty boys have caused the closing of two of the largest glass manufacturers of Maryland and thrown out of employment nearly 700 persons. Ninety boys were employed in various capacities in the works of Swindell Bros. On of their wages the firm retained 35 cents per week from each boy, which was paid him in a lump at the end of the season. The remaining four weeks the boys were liable to stop work in the spring and cause serious inconvenience, and this arrangement was agreed upon by the parents.

The little fellows were hard workers, however, and felt that they were entitled to the amount of money agreed upon.

Consequently, at the beginning of the season they requested that the premium be paid to them over three weeks instead of the time of settlement. This the firm declined to do, and the employment of new boys last week at the same wages has been suspended. The result has been trouble culminated in a general strike of about ninety boys, all quitting work, which caused the firm to close. On Saturday morning 160 boys at Baker Bros. & Co.'s works had the same grievance as those at Swindell's, and the strike was shut down. The boys say their stipend is too small as it is, without having a portion taken from them which would render their good conduct. They say the object of their strike would be better obtained by giving the boys a raise above their regular wages and not out of their pockets. The result of their intention of staying out of their demands are acceded to.

On the 29th of September the firm of Swindell Bros. said that the firm would not accede to the boys' demands. They were compelled to present their demands to the firm, as so many boys would quit work when spring comes on. The amount deducted from their weekly pay was to be given back at the close of the season. When the boys stopped work every dependent must follow suit, and the firm was compelled to throw out of work. It is impossible for the blowers and other skilled workmen to follow the boys out, as they are the aid of the boys employed to help them. As the boys are in a measure trained to the work, the establishment of new workmen would be difficult. Just how long the strike will continue cannot be told, as the boys seem determined to obtain what they ask and the firm are unwilling to accede to the boys' demands.

THE BALLOON MYSTERY.

No Clue to the Occupants of the Lost Balloon.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., September 28.—Referring to a press dispatch of last night, stating that a silk balloon with its car deserted had been found on Cumberland Hill, near Providence, R. I., labeled "Oarl Myers, Mo. My. N. Y. and Boston," and planned to the last detail, "Not one death in the clouds," Miss Charlotte, who made the balloon ascension here yesterday, says: "On the 26th inst., Leona Ward and Carlotta, wife of Carl Myers, were to have had a balloon, but from some mysterious cause Carlotta was to have made an ascension from Longport. The name found on the lost balloon, however, does not correspond with either Carlotta or Myers, nor are they hurt, though they may be. Either we could have met death in the clouds, or the balloon has come to land in a bad place, either on land or water, and that death was certain, they would have had to jump out, and that is what they did. I have not heard anything in relation to the matter, which makes me think it is to be attributed to Carl Myers. Perhaps I have been over-hypnotized for fear I would be frightened."

Anson has spoken.

Anson's spirit is crushed. He now says Chicago can't win the pennant and will fight for second place.

"What makes you think the champion is settled?" he was asked.

"I guess that is about the only reason. He has been defeated in his last two games, and I am sure he will be again."

"Younger men" is good.

The Browns won almost five games last season with the team that had played together for several years. He has only one new right stuff in him and is bound to make a success of his wining spirit and hustling style.

Mulvey, Sebastian, Wood, Andrews and Foote are said to be among the Philadelphia players who will be raised to make room for the New York Twinkies.
